CÓRDOBA

ARGENTINA

to Rincón de Luna

Rincón de Luna Hunting Lodge is a private ranch located in Calamuchita's Valley, Córdoba, Argentina.

Huge mountains, deep valleys, amazing ravines and wide winding rivers of this ranch make for a challenging hunting area and a magnificent scenery. It is a virgin area, full of wildlife.

Rincón de Luna Hunting Lodge is managed by it's owners; together with its helpful staff gives a first class service. This is the right place for your next big game adventure in South America.

RED STAG

Calamuchita's Valley is a perfect habitat for red stag. This is your great opportunity to get an excellent trophy. Every day you should see shootable game. Game is very abundant. The hunting season is from March 1st to July 30th (fall-winter in Argentina). The prime rut is from March 15th to May 15th. There's no doubt that listening deer roaring is an experience you can not miss. However, the hunting is much more interesting after the prime rut. The moment of hunting red stag in Rincón de Luna is during the morning and the afternoon. Binoculars are essential for hunting. 30.06 / 7 mm / .308 / .300 and .338 are the recommended calibers. The average shooting distance is 200 yards. Special trophies 320 / 400 + point CLASS S.C.I. are available.

When I finally reached the red stag that had given up his life for me I was in awe. The animal was huge, and his headgear was so, so impressive. I was shaking my head, still surprised that the province of Córdoba, so well known for its doves, could offer country this remote, this challenging, and so full of worthy big game.

Rincón de Luna! What an experience!
The time I have spent here has exceeded my expectations in every way. The lodge and facilities are absolutely incredible!
Could not be better. The property is stunning. Beautiful in every way. A marvelous place to hunt. The animals are wonderful, plentiful, and wild. And the service- the people- are the best! The way you all take care off us is amazing.
You truly make us feel much more like friends and family than like clients.
Other lodges could learn a thing or two from the people at Rincón de Luna!
Two red stag, a beautiful blackbuck, a wild goat, and "the gardener". (I didn't know what a gardener was, but comandante Marcos told me to shoot it).
Thank you to you all. Marcos S, Marcos, Inés, Dolly, Osvaldo, Rodrigo and especially my guide, Nestor.
Buen Guía!*
